DEFENDANT DANIEL WILKEY'S ANSWER

Comes now Deputy Daniel Wilkey (hereinafter "Wilkey") and for answer to the complaint filed against him would show to the court as follows:

FIRST DEFENSE

The Complaint fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.

SECOND DEFENSE

Wilkey specifically asserts that he was acting in good faith and in the good-faith performance of his job and duties for which he is entitled to the defense of qualified immunity or good faith immunity from any of Plaintiff's actions in the reasonable performance of his duties as it relates to this Plaintiff.

THIRD DEFENSE

To the extent that any of the Plaintiff's claims can be considered a Tennessee tort law claim, Wilkey specifically asserts the defense of comparative fault. Wilkey specifically asserts that the Plaintiff was guilty of comparative fault and that her fault constitutes 100% of the fault, thereby barring her claims as a matter of law.

FOURTH DEFENSE

Wilkey denies that he deprived the Plaintiff of any of her constitutional rights or that in any way he violated Title 42 U.S.C. § 1983 or of the United States Code, the United States Constitution, the Tennessee Constitution, the common law of Tennessee or any Tennessee statute by performing his duties during his response to the traffic stop, and the events that followed.

FIFTH DEFENSE

Wilkey would submit that neither Hamilton County nor any official policymaker adopted any policy, custom, or practice as to the use of force or the arrest power with deliberate indifference or malice or sadistic motive contrary to the rights of the Plaintiff. Further, that no actions by Hamilton County or any official policymaker was intended to deprive the Plaintiff of due process of law. Wilkey would show that there was no malicious or sadistic action by him, or any officer, and that no action of such officers occurred as a result of any unconstitutional policy, custom, or practice adopted by Hamilton County.

SIXTH DEFENSE

Wilkey asserts that his actions were objectively reasonable in connection with the attempt to respond to a traffic stop. Wilkey denies that he used any excessive force against the Plaintiff.

SEVENTH DEFENSE

The Defendant named in this lawsuit is entitled to be dismissed from it in their official capacities as any action against them in their official capacity is actually brought against a governmental entity, Hamilton County, which is already named as a Defendant in this lawsuit.

EIGHTH DEFENSE

In the alternative, Wilkey specifically asserts all defenses applicable to him under the Tennessee Governmental Tort Liability Act “TGTLA”, Tenn. Code Ann. § 29-20-101 et seq., and incorporates by reference herein all defenses specified therein. In particular, Wilkey relies upon the following provisions:

- A. Tenn. Code Ann. § 29-20-205 sets out nine (9) specific exceptions from liability where negligent acts or omissions of any employee occur within the scope of employment, including, but not limited to:
  - i. Tenn. Code Ann. § 29-20-205(1): The exercise or performance or the failure to exercise or perform a discretionary function, whether or not the discretion is abused.
  - ii. Tenn. Code Ann. § 29-20-205(2): False imprisonment pursuant to a traffic stop, false arrest, malicious prosecution, intentional trespass, abuse of process, libel, slander, deceit, interference with contract rights, infliction of mental anguish, invasion of privacy, or civil rights.
  - iii. Tenn. Code Ann. § 29-20-205(5): The institution or prosecution of any judicial or administrative proceeding, even if malicious or without probable cause.
  - iv. Tenn. Code Ann. § 29-20-205(6): Misrepresentation by an employee whether or not such is negligent or intentional.
- B. Tenn. Code Ann. § 29-20-307 provides for the right to trial without a jury;

C. Tenn. Code Ann. § 29-20-403 limits any liability of governmental entities to the statutory limits of liability applicable as of July 7, 2012.

NINTH DEFENSE

Wilkey in his official capacities, is immune from liability and not a proper party under the TGTLA for an act or omission for which the immunity of the governmental entity is removed by the TGTLA.

TENTH DEFENSE

The Plaintiff's Complaint is barred by the applicable statute of limitations or laches.

ELEVENTH DEFENSE

Wilkey is presently without information as to the availability or applicability of any other affirmative defenses, in addition to those plead above, and reserves the right to amend his Answer to plead any affirmative defenses or matters of avoidance.

TWELFTH DEFENSE

Wilkey asserts an intent to seek attorneys' fees and costs as to state law claims made against them as a prevailing party having been sued in their individual capacities for actions taken in their official capacities and under color of law pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 29-20-113(a).

THIRTEENTH DEFENSE

With respect to the specific allegations of the complaint, Wilkey responds as follows:

1. The allegations contained in paragraph 1 are denied.
2. The allegations contained in paragraph 2 do not require a response from this Defendant.
